Children's Missionary Adventure

For the second year in a row the "Children's Missionary Adventure" (Aventura Misionera Infantil) took place in the city of Guadalajara in June 2006. Last year's event saw about 600 children ages 6-13 attend; this year's event was even bigger — about 1,000 children took part in this one-day "mini-Urbana" for kids.

missions by learning about different mission fields, praying for the advance of the gospel, and beginning to ponder how they will serve God with their lives.

This year we helped out with the "Ministry to the Navajo People" booth. This required building four teepees, planning our script, and dressing the part. Overall the children that attended got a peak at about 22 different worldwide mission ministries.

The idea behind this event is that even young children can be involved in

Sarah & Hagar

A few of the Presbyterian churches in Guadalajara have the practice of hosting a monthly out-reach breakfast for women. Each month a different speaker gives an evangelistic talk based on the life of a woman in the Bible.

In April (on her birthday!) Amy gave a talk on "Sarah and Hagar." The talk went so well that she was invited to another church two weeks later to give the same devotional!

PLEASE PRAY

- For an engaging home service in which we can faithfully share with our partners in mission what God is doing in Guadalajara.
- For Grace, John, and Luke's adjustment to so many transitions, including yet another new school.
- Give thanks for growth at the Christ the Savior Church (Moctezuma).
- Give thanks for the generous financial support we have received from you for the past three years (or longer).
- Pray for unity among the churches in this vast city, and for a growing vision to plant more churches.
